Preamble: It is mutually desired and intended by the parties that any dispute or complaint arising out of the interpretation of this agreement will be communicated by the employee to their supervisor in order to provide an opportunity for discussion and timely resolution, prior to the issue becoming a grievance.

The parties to this Agreement recognize that Stewards may assist employees with the review and presentation of complaints. The Union Representatives, as specified in Article 4, are the agents through which employees will process their grievances.

All grievances must be dealt with at successive stages of the Grievance Procedure commencing with Step 1.

22.01 Definitions:

- (a) A "Grievance" means a complaint or claim concerning improper discipline or discharge, or a dispute with reference to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement.
- (b) A "Group Grievance" is defined as a single grievance, signed by a Union Representative on behalf of a group of employees who have the same complaint. The grievors names will be listed on the grievance form.
- (c) A "Policy Grievance" is defined as one which involves a question relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement. Policy Grievances may be launched by either the Union or the Employer, and will be signed by the parties Representative.

22.02 Complaint Phase

The employee shall attempt to resolve any complaint by discussing the complaint with the employee's immediate supervisor within five (5) days of the occurrence giving rise to the complaint. If the employee is not comfortable raising the complaint with their supervisor, they may ask a Steward to accompany them. The immediate supervisor shall provide a verbal response. In the event a satisfactory resolution cannot be reached, the complaint shall be referred to a Union Representative. The Union Representative will discuss the employee's complaint with the Employer Labour Relations Representative. If these discussions do not lead to a prompt resolution of the matter a grievance may be filed as per the procedure below.

22.03 Grievance Procedure

The grievance procedure is designed to resolve, as quickly as practical, disputes or complaints as to the interpretation or operation of this Agreement.

- (a) The Employer or the Union will not be required to consider or process any grievance which arose out of any action or condition more than ten (10) days after the subject of such grievance occurred. If the action or condition is of a continuing or recurring nature, this limitation period will not begin to run until the action or condition has ceased. The limitation period will not apply to differences arising between the parties hereto relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement.
- (b) If the Employer does consider or process a grievance which has been presented late, the Employer will not be stopped or precluded at any stage from taking the position that the grievance is late and not arbitrable.
- (c) All the time limits referred to in the grievance procedure herein contained will be deemed to mean "work days". A work day is defined as any day from Monday to Friday. If the parties are attempting to resolve the grievance, or an issue that may become a grievance, through discussion, or other forms of communication, the time limits expressed in this Article will not be deemed to be in effect. However, either party may, at any time unilaterally declare that the time limits are in effect. From the date of that unilateral declaration the time limits will come into effect at the last step filed by either party.

Step 1: If a grievance is to be filed it will be reduced to writing and will be presented to the designated Employer Labour Relations Representative by a Union Representative within ten (10) work days of the date of the occurrence. The designated Employer Labour Relations Representative will notify the Union Representative of their decision in writing not later than five (5) work days following the day upon which the grievance was submitted.

Step 2: If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, the Union Representative will within five (5) work days of the decision under Step 1, or within five (5) work days of the day this decision should have been made, request a meeting be held between Union Representative together with the grievor involved and the designated Employer representative and other representatives of the Employer. This meeting will be held within five (5) working days. The Employer will notify the Union Representative of their decision in writing within five (5) work days of such meeting.

Step 3: In the event that the grievance is not settled at Step 2 the party having the grievance may serve the other party with written notice of desire to arbitrate within five (5) work days of the delivery of the decision in Step 2 to the Union Representative.

22.04 Arbitration

If the grievance is not settled, pursuant to the grievance procedure above, then it may be referred to an Arbitration Board of three (3) persons composed as follows:

- (a) The party desiring arbitration shall appoint a member to the Board, notify the other party of its appointment in writing, and supply the particulars of the grievance in dispute.

- (b) The party receiving the notice shall appoint a member of the Board within five (5) calendar days and notify the other party of the appointment.
- (c) The two (2) arbitrators so appointed, shall confer to select a third person to act as chairperson. The chairperson shall be selected within five (5) calendar days of the appointment of the two arbitrators being appointed, and will be one of the persons named in this Agreement or as may be mutually agreed.
- (d) The Arbitration Board shall hear the parties, establish whether the grievance is properly before them, determine if the matter is arbitral, settle the terms of question to be arbitrated, and make its award within five (5) days of appointment of the chairperson, except when the time is extended by agreement of the parties. The Board shall deliver its award in writing to each of the parties, and the award of the majority of the Board shall be final and binding on the parties and shall be carried out forthwith.
- (e) The parties shall pay their own costs and expenses of arbitration, the remuneration and disbursements of their appointees, and one-half the expenses of the chairperson.
- (f) One of the following arbitrators shall act as chairperson for any arbitration board(s) that may arise throughout the term of the Agreement, or another chairperson(s) as may be mutually agreed upon:

Andy Sims Tim Christian John Moreau Vince Ready

22.05 Alternative Methods of Resolution

Notwithstanding any/all contrary provisions of Article 22, the parties reserve the right to mutually agree on an alternative grievance resolution process (including but not limited to referring the matter to a single arbitrator), in which case the associated fees and expenses of such alternative process shall be borne equally by the parties to the grievance.

22.06 Union Representative

It is understood that in all discussions concerning grievances, any Union Representative may accompany the Union in their meeting and the Union Representative may call upon members of the Union or any other employee to accompany them in their meetings with Employer's officials.

23.02 A Steward will be present for all disciplinary meetings. When a job steward is not available, the employee may choose another employee to be present. If the employee does not choose another employee, the Employer will choose an employee covered by this collective agreement to be present.

23.03 An employee will be deemed to have voluntarily quit if they fail to show up for work and fail to notify the Employer for four (4) consecutive work days without a justifiable reason.

ARTICLE 24. APPRENTICES

Should neither of the parties give such notice, this Agreement will renew for a period of one (1) year.

26.02 Until a new agreement has been concluded all provisions in this Collective Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

26.03 Before any negotiations have taken place the parties may by mutual agreement accept the provisions of the following:
